

Proposal for a student internship (2012)

Brief Posting Description:

- Integrate in an ongoing research project dealing with injury risk factors in long distance runners in the framework of a long term prospective follow-up

Main activities:

- implementation of a new internet based platform & study running-related injuries
- participation in the design of injury risk indicators based on the training information provided by each participant,
- develop injury prevention strategies in order to decrease injury rate in a population of runners of any level

Scientific competences, Work experience & Diplomas

- proficient in Windows Office (Word, Excel) and basic knowledge of statistics
- Languages: English is required. German, Luxembourgish or French is considered as an advantage.

Main Professional Relations

- Flexibility, independence
- Internal: team work with colleagues.
- External: discussion with external partners (instrument manufacturers), welcome of patients/healthy subjects

Obligations:

- Respect organizational procedures, in particular the data management and security procedures of the CRP-Santé.
- Respect the professional secrecy and the confidentiality of all the information brought to his/her attention during the performance of his/her duties

Practical training at the beginning of year 2012 (4 to 6month)

Interested candidates should send their CV and application cover letter (in English) to Dr. Joakim Genin at: joakim.genin@crp-sante.lu

